6. IPAC Ottawa Region Funds

6.1 Management of IPAC Ottawa Region Funds

- There will be ongoing communication between the Treasurer and the President in regards to allocation of funds/review of expenditures.
- Original receipts are to be submitted for expense reimbursement. Credit card receipts are not to be provided unless an exchange rate is required.
- Expenses are to be approved by the Treasurer and President prior to disbursement using the IPAC OR Expense Report Form. (See Appendix III.)
- All IPAC OR cheques must be signed by both the Chapter President and the Treasurer.

6.2 Assistance for Conferences, Seminars, Symposiums

Philosophy

IPAC OR believes that continuing education is essential and therefore in financially supporting members' continuing education efforts:

- For the professional development of the infection control professional,
- For the quality of patient care in relation to the prevention and control of infection,
- To advance professional excellence through continuing education,
- To enhance the practice of infection prevention and control (IPAC) by advocating for certification among Chapter members

Objectives

- To select programs for which funds for financial assistance from IPAC OR will be allocated;
- To select from the applicants of the IPAC OR membership, those persons who:
  - have demonstrated an interest in infection control education, and
  - are eligible for financial assistance, and
  - have participated in the Chapter, to attend programs for which such funds have been designated.

6.2.1 Funds

- An amount predetermined in the annual budget will be set aside each year for such functions and reviewed annually.
- The amount granted to each applicant per year will be dependent on the available funds.
- The expenses eligible for reimbursement are:
  - Hotel (conference rate)
  - Registration fee
  - Travel (economy airfare, train fare not exceeding economy airfare, or .52 cents/km (based on IPAC Canada/PCI Canada ).

- Taxi (receipts are required), Parking (receipts are required)
- Per Diem expenses for meals are: $15.00 for breakfast; $20.00 for lunch and $35.00 dinner. No meal allowance if meals are provided at the event. (receipts are required)
- The applicant will complete the expense form found in the Appendix III and send itemized receipts to the Treasurer. Reimbursement will be made upon receipt of the statement of expenses incurred.
- In the event funds are required prior to the Convention, Seminar or Workshop, a special request will be made to the Treasurer (statement of actual expenses will be submitted after the event).
- For those IPAC members who receive financial support for educational events (i.e. attendance at IPAC Canada/PCI Canada conference), the expectation is that they will attend all days of the event that they were supported for, and at the next IPAC OR meeting, they will share their lessons learned. The format for this sharing is at the member's discretion.

6.3 Eligibility Criteria for Financial Assistance

Purpose

To assist and provide funding for IPAC OR members in attending conferences or seminars related to IPAC activities.

- Applicants will submit Appendix I: IPAC OR Funds-Eligibility Criteria for Financial Assistance to the IPAC OR Executive by March 31.
- Using established criteria as set out, it will be the responsibility of the Executive to select the candidates for funding from the applicants. Values for each criterion are shown and decisions will be based on highest accumulated scores. In case of an equal eligibility, the names will be drawn.
- Members may be ineligible (depending on number of applicants) to receive funding if they have received funding by IPAC OR the previous year with the exception of the President.
- The Executive will have final authority in assigning values and has the right to recognize outstanding service.

6.4 Sponsorship of Chapter President at IPAC Conference

The President shall be provided with financial support as requested to enable full participation at the annual IPAC Canada/PCI Canada Conference.

Expenses eligible for reimbursement are:

- Hotel (conference rate)
- Registration fee
- Travel (economy airfare, train fare not exceeding economy airfare, or .52 cents/km (based on IPAC Canada/PCI Canada ).
- Taxi (receipts are required), parking (receipts are required)
- Per Diem expenses for meals are: $15.00 for breakfast; $20.00 for lunch and $35.00 dinner (receipts are required). No meal allowance is available when meals are provided at the event.

Reimbursement will be made upon receipt of statement of expenses incurred (see Appendix III for the expense form). If the event funds are required prior to the conference, a special request will be made to the Treasurer/Membership Coordinator. A statement of actual expenses will be submitted to the Treasurer after the conference.

6.5 Funding for CIC Exam/Pin and CIC Recertification

- IPAC OR encourages each member to acquire and maintain the Certification in Infection Control (CIC).
- An amount predetermined in the annual budget will be set aside each year for such functions and reviewed annually.
- Funds for the cost of the Certification/Recertification, will be allocated to any IPAC OR member requesting assistance and meeting eligibility criteria for financial assistance. The amount granted to each applicant per year will be dependent on the available funds.
- Requests/applications must be submitted in writing by December 1 to the IPAC OR Secretary.
- You must be a member of IPAC OR to qualify for financial assistance (must be a member of IPAC OR when challenging the exam/recertifying).
- You must have the ability to show proof of successful certification if required.
- IPAC OR Executive will review the applications and decide upon funding.
- Funds will not be distributed until December.
- Allocation of funds will be posted by no later than December 31 of each year.
- IPAC OR members in good standing will be presented with a CIC pin upon successfully challenging the CIC exam at the December meeting. If the member is unable to attend the IPAC OR meeting, the President or designate will send a personal note with the CIC pin congratulating the member.
- The CIC pin will be presented on a one-time basis in the year of initial certification; lost pins will not be re-issued. Recertification is not eligible for a CIC pin.

Note: Final decision for funding requests will be made by the IPAC OR Executive

6.6 Honoraria for Guest Speakers at IPAC OR Meetings

- Guest speakers may be given an honorarium of $50.00 at the discretion of the Education Coordinator(s). Guest speakers do not include vendors or Chapter members.
- The Treasurer will arrange for honorarium as needed for any IPAC OR meeting.
- Reimbursement for expenses incurred by speakers must be approved by the Executive.

6.7 Membership Dues

IPAC Canada/PCI Canada membership dues may be paid by the Chapter for all members of the Chapter Executive who are not funded/reimbursed by their institution for said dues. This shall be in effect for the duration of the member's tenure on the Chapter Executive. Should the member not fulfill the duration of the member's tenure, the funds shall be repaid in full.

7. Nominations and Elections Procedure

- The election shall be held at the fall meeting of IPAC OR .
- Only current, voting members of IPAC Canada/PCI Canada and the Chapter may be nominated to the Executive.
- Voting may take place via casting ballots and/or virtual polling, as required.
- Where only one name is presented for any office, the nominee is elected by acclamation.
- IPAC Canada/PCI Canada shall be notified in writing of the election results by the current President of IPAC OR as indicated by IPAC Canada/PCI Canada .
