This voluntary initiative is aimed at providing an understanding of how the landscape of antimicrobial stewardship in Ontario hospitals has evolved since it became an Accreditation Canada Required Organizational Practice in 2013 and opportunities for further advancing antimicrobial stewardship across the province. Survey respondents were asked questions about their organization's ASP including structural elements of their program and strategic elements ("strategies") that have been implemented. In this presentation we will share the key results of the survey, including a focus on regional results. Following the presentation, we plan to engage in dialogue about ICPs' experience with antimicrobial stewardship at their local sites.</li> </ul>	Valerie Yeung
